Christmas Bird Count 2026–27: Join Steps and Feeder Tally

Count window Dec. 14, 2026 to Jan. 5, 2027, with 12 common feeder birds to tally

STEPS TO JOIN

- [ ] Open the Audubon Circle Finder and locate a count circle near you — Step 1
- [ ] Register for that circle; participation is free — Step 2
- [ ] Ask your circle leader which day is the count day — Step 3
- [ ] Keep all counting inside the 24-hour period of that count day — Step 4

FEEDER BIRDS, FROM FEEDERWATCH'S COMMON LIST

- [ ] Seen _____ Black-capped Chickadee
- [ ] Seen _____ Dark-eyed Junco
- [ ] Seen _____ Downy Woodpecker
- [ ] Seen _____ Hairy Woodpecker
- [ ] Seen _____ White-breasted Nuthatch
- [ ] Seen _____ Tufted Titmouse
- [ ] Seen _____ Northern Cardinal
- [ ] Seen _____ Blue Jay
- [ ] Seen _____ American Goldfinch
- [ ] Seen _____ House Finch
- [ ] Seen _____ Mourning Dove
- [ ] Seen _____ White-throated Sparrow

Circle, count day, weather and other birds seen

Source: National Audubon Society (Christmas Bird Count), Birds Canada, Cornell Lab of Ornithology (Project FeederWatch, Common Feeder Birds). The bird list is not a ranking.